ALFRED DUNHILL
LINKS CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. How tough was that this week?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: Yeah, it was difficult. Today was difficult with that wind, that back nine, not my favourite nine holes, especially at the end. It's a struggle to get me to hit it far enough right. Lucky enough the rough is not too bad.

No, great week. Great partners I've had. Yeah, just delighted how it's gone and hopefully it's enough.

Q. Hopefully it's enough. We've got Sterne over at Carnoustie leaving birdies on a golf course that you know very well it's hard to achieve that kind of thing.

ROBERT MacINTYRE: Yeah, I played beautifully all week. I think my round at Kingsbarns on Friday was as good as I've got. Played beautifully. Controlled the golf ball well. Yeah, three rounds of 6-unders is not bad.

Q. You've probably got an hour to wait now to see what happens, whether it's a playoff or whether you win it outright. What do you do now?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: I'm going to go and sign some stuff here. I'm going to go and see some family and friends and just go and chill out. Won't do too much. Yeah, hopefully it's enough.
